

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

Friday night: Keynote Speaker: Diane Larsen-Freeman "The Power of Diversity in a Complex World"		7:00 p.m. Expo Hall
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Professor Emerita, University of Michigan</li> <li>• Research Scientist Emerita, English Language Institute, University of Michigan Professor Emerita, SIT Graduate Institute</li> <li>• Senior Visiting Fellow, University of Pennsylvania</li> </ul>
Friday night: Family Feud – MITESOL style		8:15 p.m.
Friday night: Photo Booth – How do you represent diversity?		8:15 p.m.
Friday night: MITESOL 2016 Reception: Happy Ogre Entertainment		9:00 p.m.
After Friday's Keynote Speech, we will be hosting a reception, featuring a buffet of hors d'oeuvres, a cash bar (for which each registrant will receive one free drink ticket), and music for dancing.
Saturday lunch: Plenary Speaker: Heidi Vellenga “ “		1:00 p.m.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assistant Director, CEA: Commission on English Language Program Accreditation</li> </ul>
Friday Welcome	Friday invited presenter:	Saturday Invited speakers:
Dr. Barbara Avery	Justin Slocum Bailey	Fatima Salemassi	Char Davenport

Vice Chancellor for Campus Inclusion and Student Life, Office of the Chancellor, The University of Michigan-Flint	Operator of Indwelling Language	Director of the World Languages Program at Madonna University	Transgender activist in Michigan, part time professor of English