

Professional Development Travel Grant for Practicing ESL/EFL Teachers Evaluation Rubric

The first 3 rubric items are rated on a scale of 1 (Very Weak) to 5 (Very Strong).

1. The applicant presents compelling reasons for wishing to attend the convention.
2. The applicant's statement and resume clearly indicate commitment to ESL/EFL teaching (as applicable).
3. The statement and resume clearly indicate the applicant's commitment to education
4. Select the value that best reflects the applicant's financial need.
  - o There is an insufficient demonstration of need of financial aid, 0
  - o There is clear indication of financial need, 1
  - o There is greater need of financial assistance (such as travel long distance or have limited income), 2
  - o Financial assistance is required for the applicant to attend the conference, 3
5. Applicants having not ever attended a MITESOL convention receive 2 extra preference points; applicants having attended a MITESOL convention 5 or more years ago receive 1 preference point. Applicants having attended conventions within 5 years, receive no preference points.

Professional Development Travel Grant Evaluation Rubric
Judged by SIG leaders
Applicant Name:	Applicant Number:
1) The applicant presents compelling reasons for wishing to attend the convention.  1 - Not Applicable / Very Weak, 2 - Weak, 3 - Adequate, 4 - Strong, 5 - Very Strong
2) The applicant's statement and resume clearly indicate commitment to ESL/EFL teaching (as applicable).  1 - Not Applicable / Very Weak, 2 - Weak, 3 - Adequate, 4 - Strong, 5 - Very Strong
3) The statement and resume clearly indicate the applicant's commitment to education.  1 - Not Applicable / Very Weak, 2 - Weak, 3 - Adequate, 4 - Strong, 5 - Very Strong
4) Select the value that best reflects the applicant's financial need. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. There is an insufficient demonstration of need of financial aid, 0</li> <li>b. There is clear indication of financial need, 1</li> <li>c. There is greater need of financial assistance (such as travel long distance or have limited income), 2</li> <li>d. Financial assistance is required for the applicant to attend the conference, 3</li> </ul>
5) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Applicants having not ever attended a MITESOL conference receive 2 extra preference points;</li> <li>b. applicants having attended a MITESOL conference 5 or more years ago receive 1 preference point.</li> <li>c. Applicants having attended conference within 5 years, receive no preference points.</li> </ul>
Total	